Kathy— Casual & Festive

My favorite item is my wool sweater. It's funky and wild just like me! And, I love the print.

Copper sequin boots = $6.99 (Goodwill)

Gap jean capris - $6.99 (Goodwill)

New Coldwater Creek velvet & embroidered coat - $9.99 (Goodwill)

Necklace - $1.99 (Goodwill)

Earrings - $1.99 (Goodwill)

Bracelet - $1.99 (Goodwill)

Wool sweater (Kathy)

Kathy's look really came from her beautiful sweater. It had a rich color that I thought would look fantastic with the Gap skinny jeans. I decided to take this casual outfit a little more festive, given the season, with these great high-heeled boots with sequined embellishment.

The dramatic velvet coat, a brand new item with the tags still on, had wonderful embroidery on the back pulled the look together in both tone and texture. An elegant way to dress for almost any wintry event that doesn't require a skirt!

Ben – Wintry Layering

My Abercrombie & Fitch coat is my favorite item. It's a really cool coat, and I love wearing it!

Merona wool sweater - $3.99 (Goodwill)

Ungaro wool sweater - $3.99 (Goodwill)

Banana Republic linen slacks - $3.99 (Goodwill)

Scarf - $1.49 (Goodwill)

Black Stacy Adams shoes (Ben)

Abercrombie & Fitch coat (Ben)

Ben is the epitome of wintry layering at its best! His favorite item was a cool A&F cotton jacket. Starting with one terrific piece is how every outfit should be anchored! I wanted to show how simple it is to add sophistication and style while staying in a monochromatic palette.

Nice linen slacks in a dark color will work for you all year round, when paired with the light wool sweaters. I really like the zippered sweater over the button placket sweater to show texture and interest.

The bright plaid scarf is a wonderful way to set off the neutral tones of the rest of the ensemble. This is a good example of casual elegance, without feeling too "dressed up." Remember guys; there are other clothing items out there besides jeans!
