Amanda— Stepping into Fall

My snake skin shoes are my favorite item. They were the start of my E-bay craze! I bought these three years ago and got a great deal. I love shopping on-line, because I don't have to go anywhere!

I love this denim skirt; I'm 29 years old and I can still pull off a short skirt!

Ralph Lauren black velvet jacket - $7.99 (Goodwill)

Black unitard - $4.99 (Goodwill)

Merino Orlandi handbag - $4.99 (Goodwill)

Necklace - $9.99 (Goodwill)

Two bracelets - $1.99 each (Goodwill)

Amanda has a great start on her fall wardrobe with her favorite item, her denim mini skirt. Bjorn paired this with a terrific vintage one piece unitard (a leotard and leggings in one piece) that is great for layering over. Next Bjorn added a fitted Ralph Lauren cotton velvet blazer with peplum that added more detail.

Going for that "ethnic" vibe with accessories, a chunky wooden necklace and bracelet, and a richly toned leather "saddle" shoulder bag with braided strap.

Her shoes are high heeled slides, but later when the weather turns cool, she can switch those out for boots! This is a great example of brown and black worn together also!

Ben – East Coast “Prep”

My favorite item is my tennis shoes. They are comfortable and they have come in handy for me for many years! I wear them all the time.

John Blair blue blazer - $6.99 (Goodwill)

Old Navy tan khakis - $4.99 (Goodwill)

American Eagle striped shirt - $5.99 (Goodwill)

Vintage grey vest - $2.99 (Goodwill)

Tie - $1.49 (Goodwill)

Tennis shoes (Ben)

Ben's favorite item is his white athletic trainers, so Bjorn wanted to show an East Coast "prep" look. Off white khakis are very versatile as our layering foundation, topped with a light blue cotton dress shirt, grey button down vest, and a red and navy tie with white accents. Top this all off with a vintage well fitted pinstripe blazer that can be worn again and again with t-shirts, sweaters and the like.

This look is playful, casual, and sophisticated at the same time! The sneakers add the prep school finishing touch. Keep in mind that navy, cream, and red will always combine well to create that "All American" look.
